

Applicants who do not hold a category D licence are eligible to join the Bus Éireann driver training programme. To progress to our driver training programme, candidates must have the following documents:

1. Valid Irish driving Category B or C (for a minimum of 2 years) with no endorsements.

2. Valid Category D licence Learner Permit

3. Valid CPC Business Case Study sheet

The flow chart below outlines the steps which applicants must complete prior to receiving a contract of offer to join the training programme.

Step 2: To obtain a Category D learner permit, candidates will firstly need to sit a theory test. For information on how to book Category D Driver theory test, click <https://theorytest.ie/book-your-theory-test/driver-theory-test-bus-or-truck/>

Step 3: Having completed the theory test, applicants will then be able to apply for the Category D Driver Learners Permit. For information on applying for the learner permit, click <https://www.rsa.ie/services/learner-drivers/learner-permit>

Step 4: Once applicants have obtained a learner permit they can then complete the CPC Business Case Study. For further information on how to proceed, click <https://www.rsa.ie/services/professional-drivers/cpc/become-a-professional-cpc-driver/3.-case-study-test>

On completion of these steps, applicants should confirm progress and forward their relevant documents to southrecruitment@buseireann.ie.
